PRAYER OF THE DAY

Stir up your power, Lord Christ, and come. By your merciful protection alert us to the threatening dangers of our sins, and redeem us for your life of justice, for you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

FIRST READING:

Jeremiah 33: 14-16

...The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

PSALM:

Psalms 25: 1-10

Please join me in reading the psalm responsively, as printed in your bulletin.

¹To you, O LORD, I lift up my soul.

²My God, I put my trust in you; let me not be put to shame, nor let my enemies triumph over me.

³Let none who look to you be put to shame; rather let those be put to shame who are treacherous.

⁴Show me your ways, O LORD, and teach me your paths.

⁵Lead me in your truth and teach me, for you are the God of my salvation; in you have I trusted all the day long.

⁶Remember, O LORD, your compassion and love, for they are from everlasting.

⁷Remember not the sins of my youth and my transgressions; remember me according to your steadfast love and for the sake of your goodness, O LORD.

⁸You are gracious and upright, O LORD; therefore you teach sinners in your way.

⁹You lead the lowly in justice and teach the lowly your way.

¹⁰All your paths, O LORD, are steadfast love and faithfulness to those who keep your covenant and your testimonies

SECOND READING:1 Thessalonians 3: 9-13...The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.GOSPELLuke 21: 25-36

...Glory to You, O Lord. ...Praise to You, O Christ.

COMMUNION Christ's body and blood nourishes our faith. Children and adults are both welcome. Wine, and juice, if preferred, will be poured into individual glasses. Please let the pastor know if you need a gluten-free wafer. Come with open hands, folded hands indicate you would like a blessing.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

STEWARDSHIP OF OUR INNER CALM. The Christmas holiday frenzy kicked off several days ago with Black Friday. We all want to approach the season calmly, but it's difficult with so many things competing for our time and energy. How about we commit to taking a few "calm breaks" each day? This week, think about using your ears to bring calm into your being. That might be by sinking into a soft chair and listening to a favorite vocalist sing Christmas songs. Or do you have a favorite instrumental group or artist? Do you have a water feature in your home? Or, instead of scurrying around in the morning, could you pause for a few minutes to listen to (and smell) the coffee being perked? We'd love to learn of the sounds that work for you! Bring your ideas to the Soup Supper on Wednesday, and share them with your table mates. Meanwhile, spend some time calmly listening!

THE FRIDDLE FAMILY would like to thank the congregation for the support we received during our mom's (Peggy Friddle) illness and passing. We truly appreciate the prayers, cards, salads for her service, and memorials.

THE NOISY OFFERING for November 28th will be for the Women and Children's Shelter and for the Lighthouse Mission for Men. Collection boxes will be available in the narthex for socks, hats, mittens, and gloves. Thanks for your help in providing warm accessories for the chilly days ahead! We will also be collecting for six Thanksgiving Food Boxes. Pick feathers from the turkeys on the front windows. Thanks again for your generosity.

WOW, what a wonderful out pouring of generosity from everyone for the food given for the Thanksgiving food boxes! Thank you to ALL the people that helped box and deliver the food after church last Sunday. The people that received the food boxes were very appreciative. Thank you again- Church and Community

On Sunday, DECEMBER 12TH, please plan on joining Church in Community Committee after service to work on the Thrivent Service Project of healthy holiday foods for Trinity New Hope Housing, After the bags are filled, we will also need help delivering.

OFFERING ENVELOPES FOR 2022 - If you plan to use small colored offering envelopes next year but have not already requested them, please talk with Penelope Smith today.

HOPE AND JOY! Selections in our Advent Daily Devotional start today, so pick up your booklet! Today's entry is an Advent Conspiracy Bingo game that you can play throughout Advent. As usual, our authors did an amazing job of capturing the hope and joy to be found in this season, despite some challenging circumstances. We also have a version that can be read on your computer, tablet or smartphone; if this works better for you or it's a good way to share with out-of-state friends and family, please ask Bob Cola to email you a copy.

WOMEN'S LUNCHEON: The Women's Luncheon for November will be 11:30 a.m., Tuesday, November 30th at Applebees. Please contact Judy Kellar to RSVP.

NURSERY: We love having kids in worship at Trinity. A squeal is a joyful noise that reminds us of our generational diversity. We are simultaneously happy to announce that our nursery is open again, with a SPEAKER so people can hear the entire worship service. At this time, as part of our covid precautions, the nursery will not be staffed by volunteers and families will need to bring their own toys.

CHURCH IN COMMUNITY is taking a look forward to 2022 Noisy Offerings. We welcome your input and have provided a small yellow slip of paper for you to list any new projects you would like us to consider or any favorites we had done from our past lists. Check the green charts on the patio doors and include your request with your offering. Thanks for your assistance.

CHRISTMAS EVE SERVICES: Sign-up to help with Christmas Eve services in the office on the bulletin board.
