

The Annual Trinity Church CAMPOUT will be the weekend of June 23 - 25 at the Ward property near Donnelly. There are green flyers on the table in the narthex with more information, schedule, etc. If you plan to attend but have not yet done so, please let Steve and Julie Ward know you will be coming.....particularly if you plan to camp overnight. We know that some households will be staying in their own Valley County homes or in a motel; and others plan to drive up just for the day on Saturday. We STILL need to know if YOU plan to join us - so we can have enough burgers and hot dogs on hand for Saturday dinner. So communicate this to Wards as well.

FIRST LESSON

Hosea 5: 15-6: 6

¹I will return again to my place until they acknowledge their guilt and seek my face. In their distress they will beg my favor: ^{6:1}"Come, let us return to the LORD; for it is he who has torn, and he will heal us; he has struck down, and he will bind us up. ²After two days he will revive us; on the third day he will raise us up, that we may live before him. ³Let us know, let us press on to know the LORD; his appearing is as sure as the dawn; he will come to us like the showers, like the spring rains that water the earth." ⁴What shall I do with you, O Ephraim? What shall I do with you, O Judah? Your love is like a morning cloud, like the dew that goes away early. ⁵Therefore I have hewn them by the prophets, I have killed them by the words of my mouth, and my judgment goes forth as the light. ⁶For I desire steadfast love and not sacrifice, the knowledge of God rather than burnt offerings.

L: Word of God, Word of life. C: Thanks be to God.

PSALM

Psalm 50: 7-15

Please join me in reading the psalm responsively, as printed in your bulletin.

⁷"Listen, my people, and I will speak: Israel, I will bear witness against you; for I am God, your God.

⁸I do not accuse you because of your sacrifices; your burnt offerings are always before me.

⁹I will not accept a calf from your stalls, nor goats from your pens;

¹⁰for all the wild animals of the forest are mine, the cattle on a thousand hills.

¹¹I know every bird of the mountains, and the creatures of the fields are mine.

¹²If I were hungry, I would not tell you, for the whole world is mine and all that is in it.

¹³Do you think I eat the flesh of bulls, or drink the blood of goats? ¹⁴Offer to God a sacrifice of thanksgiving and make good your vows to the Most High. ¹⁵Call upon me in the day of trouble; I will deliver you, and you shall honor me.

SECOND LESSON

Romans 4: 13-25

¹³The promise that he would inherit the world did not come to Abraham or to his descendants through the law but through the righteousness of faith. ¹⁴If it is the adherents of the law who are to be the heirs, faith is null and the promise is void. ¹⁵For the law brings wrath; but where there is no law, neither is there violation. ¹⁶For this reason it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his descendants, not only to the adherents of the law but also to those who share the faith of Abraham (for he is the father of all of us, ¹⁷as it is written, "I have made you the father of many nations")—in the presence of the God in whom he believed, who gives life to the dead and calls into existence the things that do not exist. ¹⁸Hoping against hope, he believed that he would become "the father of many nations," according to what was said, "So numerous shall your descendants be." ¹⁹He did not weaken in faith when he considered his own body, which was already as good as dead (for he was about a hundred years old), or when he considered the barrenness of Sarah's womb. ²⁰No distrust made him waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God, ²¹being fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised. ²²Therefore his faith "was reckoned to him as righteousness." ²³Now the words, "it was reckoned to him," were written not for his sake alone, ²⁴but for ours also. It will be reckoned to us who believe in him who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead, ²⁵who was handed over to death for our trespasses and was raised for our justification.

L: Word of God, Word of life. C: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL

Matthew 9: 9-13, 18-26

P: The Gospel, according to Matthew C: Glory to you, O Lord.

⁹As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax booth; and he said to him, "Follow me." And he got up and followed him. ¹⁰And as he sat at dinner in the house, many tax collectors and sinners came and were sitting with him and his disciples. ¹¹When the Pharisees saw this, they said to his disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?" ¹²But when he heard this, he said, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. ¹³Go and learn what this means, 'I desire mercy, not sacrifice.' For I have come to call not the righteous but sinners." ¹⁸While he was saying these things to them, suddenly a leader of the synagogue came in and knelt before him, saying, "My daughter has just died; but come and lay your hand on her, and she will live." ¹⁹And Jesus got up and followed him, with his disciples. ²⁰Then suddenly a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years came up behind him and touched the fringe of his cloak, ²¹for she said to herself, "If I only touch his cloak, I will be made well." ²²Jesus turned, and seeing her he said, "Take heart, daughter; your faith has made you well." And instantly the woman was made well. ²³When Jesus came to the leader's house and saw the flute players and the crowd making a commotion, ²⁴he said, "Go away; for the girl is not dead but sleeping." And they laughed at him. ²⁵But when the crowd had been put outside, he went in and took her by the hand, and the girl got up. ²⁶And the report of this spread throughout that district.

P: The Gospel of the Lord. C: Praise to you, O Christ.

COMMUNION Christ's body and blood nourishes our faith. Children and adults are both welcome. Wine, and juice, if preferred, will be poured into individual glasses. Please let the pastor know if you need a gluten-free wafer. Come with open hands, folded hands indicate you would like a blessing.

Offering

An offering is gathered for the mission of the church, including the care of those in need. Offering plates are in the back of the sanctuary. You may also give online: <https://www.nampatrinity.org/online-giving/>

ANNOUNCEMENTS

FOOD PANTRY BIBLE VERSE FOR JUNE is Genesis 1:1-2:4a "I have provided all kinds of grains and fruits for you to eat". Please bring a can of fruit to the pantry. Thanks for helping feed those in need- Church in Community

JUNE'S NOISY OFFERING on June 25th is for Peace Camp.

JOIN US: In wishing Pr. Meggan a fond farewell! There will be an Open House at Trinity on Monday, June 19th from 5-7 p.m. to celebrate Pr. Meggan's time with us here at Trinity.

BOOKS - Cascade Public Library was overjoyed with the 17 boxes of books that we sent up in May. And they have some serious storage issues at their little library! They have asked us to not bring up any more books until July or August since they don't have the staff to sort them or a place besides their meeting room to put them. So, please bring in NO MORE BOOKS! We will go through the other 30 boxes of books additionally donated and prepare them to head north later this summer.

FOOD TRUCKS AND LAWN GAMES - JUNE 14th from 6:00 - 7:30 pm..... this was such a success last year, we are doing it again. Classic Guac N Roll will bring yummy food for us to individually purchase. There will be lawn games and ice cream sandwiches. Bring your lawn chairs or blankets to sit on.

PR. MEGGAN IS: leading the Women's Retreat at Flathead Lutheran Camp in MT.
